

THE Mark Twain HOUSE & MUSEUM

The Mark Twain House has details everywhere. The stenciled pattern seen here can be found in the second-floor hall and adjacent stairways. The stenciling in the House today is reproductions of the Clemens era pattern designed by Louis Comfort Tiffany and his company, Associated Artists. The background is a pale olive while the stencil is a “gilt” bronze.

What colors would you use?

Be sure to share your finished page and tag The Mark Twain House & Museum on Facebook or Instagram.