

THE Mark Twain HOUSE & MUSEUM

Between 1874 and 1891, Sam and Livy Clemens, and their three daughters, Susie, Clara, and Jean, lived in this house, located in Hartford, Connecticut. They'd later say the years here were the happiest of their lives. Sam (also known as Mark Twain) wrote his most important works during this time, including Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, The Adventures of Tom Sawyer, and A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court. Visit our website to learn more about the House and the Clemens family!

Be sure to share your finished page and tag The Mark Twain House & Museum on Facebook or Instagram.