

THE Mark Twain HOUSE & MUSEUM

This is part of the pattern stenciled on the ceiling of the school room in the Mark Twain House. It is a reproduction of the original Clemens era stenciling. The Clemens girls -- Susie, Clara, and Jean -- used the room for more than just their studies. Every Saturday they'd set up a temporary stage and preform plays. What decoration is in your class room?

Be sure to share your finished page and tag The Mark Twain House & Museum on Facebook or Instagram.